

RECONCILIATION IS A PROCESS.

What can you do to advance it?

1

READ THE 94 CALLS TO ACTION.

Learn the truth about what happened by starting with the six volumes compiled by the Truth and Reconciliation Commission. Then, familiarize yourself with the TRC's 94 Calls to Action, meant to guide the reconciliation process in Canada.

2

MAKE CHANGE.

Consider how you can use your connections and voice to make change and advance a number of those Calls, and then act on it. Commit to one thing each day. Hold yourself accountable. Hold others accountable.

3

UPLIFT INDIGENOUS BUSINESSES.

Make purchases, write reviews, and spread the word.

4

CELEBRATE INDIGENOUS HERITAGE.

Amplify our joy. Colonization has been just a fraction of histories spanning millennia. Learn about the incredible diversity of all of the founding Peoples of our land, the vibrance of our cultures and languages, and our heritage and contributions.

SUPPORT HEALING.

Support the reclamation of our identities, languages, and cultures. Support Indigenous-led organizations that are driving Indigenous innovation and solutions in our communities.
